

POUND by Sean O'Leary Sept. 17 – Oct. 10, 2021

Ezra Pound: Poet! Fascist! Literary Icon! Madman! About to be released from St. Elizabeth's Psychiatric Hospital after 12 years, Pound finds himself challenged by a new female therapist assigned to help him make the transition to the outside world. Straight from Off-Broadway to The Studio, please join us for this fascinating new play of manipulation, truth and revenge.

THE MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE by Kirt Shineman Oct. 29 – Nov. 21, 2021

In her old age, will the queen of fiction mysteries, Agatha Christie, decide to do the one thing she's never done: commit a real murder? Don't miss this suspenseful, tantalizing play with plot twists that reach a surprising yet logical climax. A world premiere by a Studio Playwright!

WORDS FOR MUSIC: IRVING BERLIN Dec. 3 - 12, 2021

"Happy Holidays!" Let's party with the music and lyrics of one of America's most beloved song writers, Irving Berlin! "Let Yourself Go!" A little singing, a little dancing, a little toasting, and lots of smiling as we celebrate being together. "They Say It's Wonderful!"

A DOLL'S HOUSE PART TWO by Lucas Hnath Jan. 7 - 30, 2022

So what happened to Nora after her iconic door slam at the end of Ibsen's classic, A Doll's House? Well, 15 years later, she is back to tell us and confront the family she left behind. Told in contemporary language as brilliantly imagined by the playwright; this smart, funny, perceptive and totally engrossing play is a must see!

A DELICATE BALANCE by Edward Albee Feb. 18 – Mar. 13, 2022

From the Treasury of American Theatre comes one of Albee's classic masterpieces. As a family and their neighbors deal with fears from without and conflicts from within, they struggle to keep that delicate balance between order and chaos. Written with humor, pathos and eloquence, this Pulitzer Prize-winning play is a reminder that although humanity is fragile, it is important to face the reality of our own lives.

BY THE WATER by Sharyn Rothstein Apr. 1 - 24, 2022

This engaging and relevant play looks at a family and a community dealing with the aftermath of a natural disaster. Relationships and reality, revelations and reconciliation provide all the elements of an interesting and engrossing drama drawn together with compassion and poignant humor.

THE CHILDREN by Lucy Kirkwood May 13 - 29, 2022

Two married and retired nuclear scientists have chosen to live life in isolation until an old friend arrives with a frightening request. This compelling and gripping story explores one's sense of social responsibility and begs the question: What exactly does the older generation owe the younger generation? You will be talking about this one!

2022 NEW SUMMER SHORTS by Studio Playwrights June 16 - 26, 2022

Our annual festival of ten-minute plays from our talented Studio playwrights is always a highlight of our season. We look forward to once again sharing these popular, original short comedies and dramas as our grand finale.